

ANGELINA JOLIE'S CREATIVITY AND SELF EXPRESSION

The Sun is the focus or heart of any horoscope and represents an individual's true self and shows what their purpose is. Therefore, this is the CORE of your character and HEART of your profile. You spontaneously focus upon this area and you must orbit around it. If you try to suppress these qualities, your creativity and confidence are squashed. The activities described here will have the biggest impact upon your life. You will need to make room for these - as you Angelina become involved with them you bring joy, laughter and sunshine into your life, that special feeling which being creative can only bring. Herein lies your destiny.

Sun in Capricorn

You are the boss in your family and it was not long before you became aware of that. The purpose of your life is to be an authority, an expert and leader. Therefore, you are ambitious and are shrewd in the way you achieve these ambitions and goals. Continually, from birth you make progress, bettering yourself slowly till you have the authority or clout to achieve your ambition for leadership. You can help yourself with this by talking and learning from people who are already in business. Getting what support you can from them. You are a business person. Your creativity is in management, make sure you get these skills.

Because of this strong ambition you do not want to be seen as weak or wrong and reticently do tasks, take risks or experiment. Keeping "face" is all important to you. So you are a serious, cautious and hardworking individual. Learn to lighten up if you can because you often become bogged down in habit or routine. You are great at self-discipline which if other factors concur should guarantee success. Mature for your age you take your duties seriously and are responsible. You can make people feel guilty. As you are tough on yourself you are often reproachful of them. If they do not do what you want you can become cold and withdrawn in an attempt to control them. Angelina you always want to do better and frown on any slacking. Direct yourself towards activities where you can become leader and a captain of industry etc.

Sun in 12th

Angelina you can be a recluse, wanting to be in the background. Therefore, you are very private keeping your talent and creativity to yourself. You express yourself secretly hiding whatever you are doing from the world, wanting to lose yourself within a large institution or body such as a hospital, prison, gangs, religious orders, faction, group or the government. Involvement with these types of groupings will ultimately govern and shape your direction. You are most comfortable when wearing a uniform which identifies you as part of a greater whole, which you wish to serve. This is the purpose of your life.

When you help people you are truly yourself, so you are sensitively, empathic and compassionate when you express yourself. You can care more for society than yourself, and are considerate of others' needs. Your ideals, visions, fantasies and dreams about society influence your creativity. Commitment to these ideals gives your life purpose, meaning, brings peace of mind and encourages you. Because you are easily swayed by mass emotional appeals and social causes you can be manipulated. Often you express the ideals and beliefs of the institution which you are part of, not knowing which is yours or theirs - or escape from them. Instinctively you merge with people, causes or ideals and become consumed by them. Therefore, you have unclear boundaries and may not be totally sure of who you are. Learn to say no and to separate from others. To do this you need time alone, periods of retreat and meditation. When you have that you become a strategist. If you do not you hide your true self being compliant and submissive - and appear incompetent, not knowing who you are or what you stand for.

Sometimes, you are truly inspired in your self-expression while at other times confused and vague. This is because your creativity is influenced by feelings, emotions, the unconscious and the past. Therefore, you are not as direct and expressive as you could be and often defeat yourself through being passive and secretive. Self expression is difficult. You are quite sensitive to the reactions of others, so you hide yourself. You are indirect. Therefore, you do not get the recognition you desire and become frustrated. People become confused by your hiding. You are suited to a spiritual life or living in a supportive religious community.

You may be uncomfortable with your creativity and hide it, it is necessary that you be aware of your talents and express them constructively, through helping others, or some creative outlet. Otherwise you may end up in prison or hospital. When you express yourself you either subtly influence or are influenced by your surroundings. Unconsciously you are either an inspiration of others; or an escapist.

Your energy should be directed toward healing and medicine, art and movement, since you have skill in these areas. Because of your vulnerability and sensitivity, you feel tired at times, needing much sleep. You want calm and peace in your life. This can be achieved through meditation and creative activities, like dance and music but when negative you seek it through escapist activities. Watch for possible abuse of alcohol and drugs. Your ability to work with images and dreams gives you skill in directing drama, dance, film and in photography. Also you may work healing and medicine or as a social worker. Some psychic ability. You hide your love life.

TALENT AND OBSTACLES IN SELF-EXPRESSION
